

TOWN OF WHITESTOWN, INDIANA
RESOLUTION NO. 2016-35

A RESOLUTION CONCERNING A SUBSTANCE ABUSE TASK FORCE

WHEREAS, the Whitestown Town Council desires to aid in the prevention of drug overdoses in our community; and

WHEREAS, the State of Indiana and many of its communities, including Boone County, have experienced an increase in the number of opioid overdoses; and

WHEREAS, the Whitestown Town Council desires to enhance public awareness and engage the Town's residents in a dialogue on the issue of substance abuse prevention; and

WHEREAS, the Whitestown Town Council desires to create a task force for such purposes, which will further work in partnership with the Boone County Substance Abuse task force; and

WHEREAS, a drug-abuse program and resource guide would provide a valuable tool for families and those seeking treatment or assistance.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Town Council of the Town of Whitestown, Indiana, as follows:

1. There is hereby created a 2016 Whitestown Substance Abuse Task Force ("Task Force").
2. The composition of the Task Force is as follows:
 - a. Chairperson – Councilmember Jeff Wishek;
 - b. Vice-Chairperson – Councilmember Kevin Russell;
 - c. The Whitestown Police Chief (or his/her designee) and the Whitestown Fire Chief (or his/her designee);
 - d. The Whitestown Assistant Town Manager; and
 - e. Such other members as the Chairperson and Vice-Chairperson, in and at their discretion, may select from the Whitestown community. Such members may include Whitestown citizens, Whitestown business representatives, or other stakeholders; and
 - f. Town consultants and advisors, in and at the discretion of the Chairperson and Vice-Chairperson.

3. The Task Force shall develop and make recommendations on an as-needed basis to the Whitestown Town Council. The Task Force shall provide a report to the Whitestown Town Council at its January 2017 meeting that summarizes the work of the Task Force. The responsibilities of the Task Force shall include at a minimum:

- (1) Development of a single-page (or brochure) Whitestown area specific resource guide that can be accessed by family or community members seeking treatment or assistance for others;
- (2) Recommending innovative solutions for drug abuse and overdose prevention based on local needs and available resources;
- (3) Recommending best practices to disseminate information, enhance public awareness, and engage the community as a whole in dialogue on the issue of substance abuse prevention;
- (4) Creating an online repository of drug abuse and overdose prevention resources for the Whitestown community; and
- (5) identifying and evaluating options for a third-party vendor or contractor to offer HIV and Hepatitis C testing in or near Whitestown.
